Europe and Leaving U.S. Without Leadership During Critical Times.

CHICAGO, April 24.—Speaking at the rat annual convention of the Missia-ippl Valley association yesterday, at-ended by 500 bankers and business men representing 22 states, H. H. Merrick, Chicago banker and president of the organisation, criticized President Wilson for going to Europe and leaving the United States without governmental ownership during the most critical period of reconstruction days. Mr. Merrick appealed to busness interests to take a more active part in affairs. "Fifty-two per cent of the entire vote of the country is in the Mississippi valley," and Mr. Merrick. "Congress will do what we want or hearfrom us. Someone has said that we do not need a policy in the United States. I say that we do, and we need it mighty bad right now. "What do you think of men called to Washington to direct the establishing of the prices of steel, fron and coal and other primary products and then have some bureaucrat say: "I won't agree for the country." The secretary of war and the director of railroads won't agree. Why, in private business, if an employe made such an answer we would examine him for his sanity. I say it is all wrong. We can not settle the troubles of the world until we clean house at home.

"If this country was not so strong we would have the worst panic this world ever saw right now, because we haven't any head We are doing our job here at home 100 per cent. Are they doing it abroad? I don't think so."

conference by most of the journals. Apparently halted temporarily by astonlehment, some newspapers refrain from comment.

Everywhere Mr. Wilson's action is regarded as having created a most serious situation, the unfolding of which will be watched with anxious interest. Such editorials as appear were manifestly written with an eye to Italy's possible withdrawal from the conference, though Premier Orlando's anmouncement of his decision to quit Parishad not reached London when the papers were published.

Ophions as to Mr. Wilson's statement and Italy's attitude vary. The Graphic, while discissiming hostility to Italy, refers to her "obdurate attitude" and savocates the Croatian claims to Fiume. It heads its news columns with the caption, "Italy Jeopardizing Peace."

The Chronicle places over the news from the peace conference the head. "Wilson's Stirring Appeal for Small Nations, but is editorially perturbed. Without opposing President Wilson, it calls his action "a strong step" and "a momentous innovation." The editorial takes a sympathetic attitude toward Italy's position, although it is admitted the issue is one upon which opinions can be honestly held.

"Mr. Wilson's appeal from the diplomatic table to the general public may at first sight commend itself as consonant with democratic statesmassin," the editorial rends. "The result in making an exception in Italy's case to past secrecy is to create a danger for the whole league of nations," which the newspaper adds, may if the litalians withdraw, "find its existence virtually terminated before it is begun."

The Daily News under the heading, "the breaking point," calls attention to the "grave crisis."

A conviction that President Wilson would never have taken such a step except as a last recource after the failure of all private negotiations is voiced by the Express, "It would be elle to speculate on what will follow," the newspaper says, "The two antagonistic principles which have been more or less in velled conflict throughout the deliberations of the confere

MOVIE ACTRESSES AND THEIR HAIR

Did it ever occur to you that every movie actress you have seen has levely hair, while the most popular count their curls as their chief beauty? In fact, many are leading ladies just because of their attractive looks. Inquiry among them discloses the fact that they bring out all the natural beauty of their hair by careful shampooing, not with any soap or makeshift, but with a simple mixture by putting a teaspoonful of canthrox (which they get from the druggist) in a cup of how water and applying this instead of soap. This full cup of shampoo liquid is enough, so it is easy to happly it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. After its use, the hair dies rapidly with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissoived and entirely disappear. The hair is so fluffy that it looks much heavier adv.
